CONDITIONS OF ISSUE AND USE OF ASIC

An ASIC does not give right of access to a secure area. Authorisation to access a secure area must be obtained from the relevant airport operator. The ASIC simply indicates the holder has been background checked and is suitable to be in a secure area once authorised.

These are the conditions on which an ASIC is issued to you by Sunshine Coast Airport pursuant to the Aviation Transport Security Regulations 2005 ('Regulations')

1. APPLICATION FOR ASIC	When you apply for an ASIC, you must give Sunshine Coast Airport a completed application form containing: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) Complete all of the information required on the application form; b) Your consent to Sunshine Coast Airport forwarding your details to AusCheck in order to obtain various record checks including security, law enforcement and citizenship records; and c) Your signature, certifying that all the information you have provided is correct, in order to determine your suitability to be issued with, and continue to hold, an ASIC. If you do not complete all sections required in the application form, or include in the application form information which Sunshine Coast Airport determines false or misleading, Sunshine Coast Airport may refuse your application for an ASIC. Sunshine Coast Airport will decide whether to issue you with an ASIC in accordance with the requirements of the Regulations and any other relevant matters. To comply with the Regulations, Sunshine Coast Airport will request various records checks including security, law enforcement and citizenship records, pursuant to your consent and you must produce the identification detailed in the application form.
2. USE OF AN ASIC	You must represent to Sunshine Coast Airport that you have an operational need for frequent access to a Secure Area of one or more security controlled Airports and acknowledge that you: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) Must not enter or stay in a Secure Area of a Security Controlled Airport unless you have a lawful purpose (Regulation 3.11) for being in that Secure Area; and b) Must not give your ASIC to anyone else to use. It is for your use only while on duty; and c) Must keep your ASIC secure at all times (even when you are not using it). It is an offence under the Regulations if you contravene paragraph 8.4(a) above. It is also an offence under the Regulations if you are in a Secure Area using an invalid ASIC or an ASIC that was not issued to you.

3. DISPLAY OF ASIC	You must properly display an ASIC at all times in a Secure Area. This means the ASIC must be displayed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) Above waist height; and b) At the front or side of your body; and c) With the whole front of the ASIC clearly visible (Regulation 1.04) You are not properly displaying an ASIC if anything adhering to it obscures a photograph or anything else on it. It is an offence of strict liability under the Regulations if you fail to properly display your ASIC in a Secure Area unless you are an exempted person as defined by the Regulations 3.03 & 3.13.
4. SUPERVISING VISITORS	In supervising a person who has been issued with a Visitor Identification Card (VIC), an ASIC holder must adhere to any requirements specified by the airport operator. It is an offence of strict liability under Regulation 3.03 for the ASIC holder to leave a VIC holder unsupervised.
5. NOTIFYING SUNSHINE COAST AIRPORT IN CERTAIN CIRCUMSTANCES	You must notify Sunshine Coast Airport within 30 days if you change your name. Failure to do so is an offence under Regulation 6.42. You must notify Sunshine Coast Airport within 7 days if you: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) Become an 'Unlawful Citizen' b) No longer need frequent access to a Secure Area or need to enter a Secure Area for operational purposes; c) Change your residential address -or contact details; d) You subsequently discover that the information you have given in your ASIC application was false or misleading. If the holder on an ASIC is convicted of an Aviation Security Relevant Offence, he or she must notify Sunshine Coast Airport in writing of the conviction and any sentence within 7 days. Failure to do so is an offence under the Regulation 6.41.
6. RETURN OF ASIC	You must return your ASIC to Sunshine Coast Airport within one month if: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) Your ASIC has expired; b) Sunshine Coast Airport notifies you that your ASIC has been cancelled; c) The ASIC has been damaged, altered or defaced (permanently or temporarily); or d) You no longer need to enter the relevant secure area for an operational purpose. It is an offence of strict liability under the Regulations if you fail to return your ASIC to Sunshine Coast Airport as required by this clause. (Regulation 6.45)

7. CANCELLATION OR SUSPENSION OF ASIC	Sunshine Coast Airport may cancel your ASIC if you fail to comply with any of these conditions or the Regulations. For example, if you; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) Fail to supervise the holder of a Visitor Identification Card (VIC) while that person is in a Secure Area; b) Have given your ASIC to someone else to use to gain entry to a Secure Area; c) Are found in a Secure Area otherwise than for an operational purpose (for example, you are not on duty); d) Have failed to notify Sunshine Coast Airport of the things set out in Condition 5; e) Provided information in your ASIC application which Sunshine Coast Airport discovers was false or misleading; f) Have failed to display a valid ASIC as set out in Condition 3; or g) Misuse your ASIC. There are other circumstances in which Sunshine Coast Airport may cancel your ASIC. Other such circumstances are set out in the Regulations. The ASIC must be returned to Sunshine Coast Airport within one month upon notification of the cancellation. Sunshine Coast Airport reserves the right to withdraw, cancel or refuse issue of an ASIC at its sole discretion.
8. LOSS OF ASIC	You must notify Sunshine Coast Airport within 7 days in the form of a statutory declaration if your ASIC has been lost, stolen or destroyed. It is offence of strict liability if the holder does not make a report, in the form of a statutory declaration, of the loss to Sunshine Coast Airport within 7 days of becoming aware of the loss, theft or destruction (Regulation 6.46). Failure to do so is an offence under Regulation 6.46 In addition to this Sunshine Coast Airport requires the holder of an ASIC to make a report of the theft to the Local State or Territory Police and an event number must be supplied to Sunshine Coast Airport at the time of notification.
9. RENEWAL OF ASIC	It is your responsibility to ensure your application is lodged in sufficient time to be re-issued with another ASIC prior to the current one expiring. No extensions will be granted. If your ASIC expires you will be required to operate with a Visitor Pass which will require you to be under constant supervision by a valid ASIC holder.
10. Acknowledgement	You acknowledge that the issue to and use by you of an ASIC is subject to the following conditions of Issue & Use for an ASIC ('Conditions'): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) The Aviation Transport Security Act 2004 as amended ('Act') b) The Aviation Transport Security Regulations 2005 as amended ('Regulations') c) Conditions of Issue and Use for an Aviation Security Identification Card (ASIC) as detailed on this form; d) You must acknowledge and agree that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> i. Camera/Video surveillance may be carried out at security controlled airports from time to time for the purpose of safeguarding against unlawful interference with aviation; and ii. You and/or goods in your possession may be subject to inspection on entry, exit or while in the Secure Area of a security controlled airport.
